should say that the 'big Green team' has a very excellent claim to the championship because Millville had already won from Woodbury, which team without its star, Nick Carter, held A Collingswood to a tie, and because Millville also won from Gloucester 'because Riverside and Woodbury eliminated Riverton, Westville, Paulsboro and Woodstown from the race by decisive victories.

cisive victories.

"Of course, there is no contention that one cleven can play all the teams in South Jersey, and the chammionshimust be decided upon an elimination basis. Regarding the claims of Me rose, I will say Melrose has not defeated a New Jersey team this season.

"Millville offered to give the resort eleven a game on Thanksgiving Day. I offered them the privilege of taking half the gate, but they demanded a flat guarantee, and Millville did not feel like a lowing the Atlantic City eleven to dictate terms.

"We in Millville have no doubt but that we could repeat last year's 18-to-0 victory over the Melrose eleven. With Anderson and Obergfell playing I think Riverside could win from them, too.

"It's hard for me to see how Mel-rose, playing Philadelphia teams all season, can lay any claim to a South Jersey title. Let them try out Wood-bury or Irvington or the Newark team that plays Millville tomorrow.

"Considerable publicity is being given to the fact that Melrose plays Wildwood A. A., of Frankford, Sunday and that Wildwood defeated Riverside, 7 to 6. Not much can be obtained from this. Millville beat Wildwood 13 to 0 and they never made a first down on the
